TRANSFER OF CONVERTIBLE NOTES

On 19 June 2008, the Board was informed by CWP Investment in respect of the Transfer where New Energy has agreed to acquire and the sole beneficial owner of CWP Investment has agreed to sell the entire issued share capital of CWP Investment.

Pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Notes, the Company has been granted a right of first refusal in case of a direct or an indirect transfer of any Convertible Notes. Given that CWP Investment, which holds the Convertible Notes, is to be transferred to New Energy, a company owned by the management of the Company in majority, the Transfer helps to align the long-term interests of the relevant management with that of the Company, and that the undertakings given by New Energy and Concord International (as described below in details), the Company has decided not to exercise the right of first refusal and to consent to the Transfer.

Under the S&P Agreement, CWP Investment has given certain non-disposal undertakings in relation to the transfer the Convertible Notes and any Conversion Shares during the Moratorium Period, unless prior written consent of the Company has been granted. CWP Investment, Concord International and New Energy have jointly and severally undertaken to the Company that they will subject to the same lock-up arrangements as CWP Investment has undertaken under the S&P Agreement for the remaining period of the original Moratorium Period under the S&P Agreement, and for a further three months after the end of the original Moratorium Period (i.e. up to 30 April 2009 for the 1st Tranche Convertible Note (I) and up to 18 December 2008 for the 2nd Tranche Convertible Note).

Upon completion of the S&P Agreement on 1 August 2007, CWP Investment executed a first fixed charge over the 1st Tranche Convertible Note (I) with a principal amount of HK$70,000,000 in favour of the Company to secure any potential liabilities or obligations which may arise out of any possible breach of any of the terms of the S&P Agreement by CWP Investment and/or any representation, undertaking or warranty made by CWP Investment being untrue or incorrect in any material respect; and any costs and expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the enforcement of its rights in respect thereof for a period of 18 months from the completion date of the S&P Agreement (i.e. up to 31 January 2009). Upon completion of the Transfer, the above charge will be released. Given that (1) the Wind Power Group has achieved its profit target for the 2008 Period; (2) the management is not aware of any breach of any terms of the S&P Agreement nor any representations made in the S&P Agreement been materially incorrect or untrue and (3) the financial position of the Wind Power Group has been audited, the Company considers it acceptable to have the fixed charge over the 1st Tranche Convertible Note (I) be released.

Under the S&P Agreement, CWP Investment has made certain non-compete undertakings to the Company. CWP Investment will continue to be bound by such non-compete undertakings after the Transfer for the period as specified in the S&P Agreement. Shareholders may refer to the announcement and circular of the Company dated 21 May 2007 and 13 July 2007 respectively for the details of such non-compete undertakings.

All terms of the Convertible Notes remain unchanged. Shareholders may refer to the announcement and circular of the Company dated 21 May 2007 and 13 July 2007 respectively for the details of the terms of the Convertible Notes.
